Rental Application Approval Criteria

Welcome to our community! Before you apply to rent an apartment, please take a moment to review our rental application approval criteria.

We will not discriminate against any person in the rental of an apartment because of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, familial status, mental or physical handicap, or source of income.

Identification

All applicants are required to provide photo identification.

Confidentiality

We maintain a strict policy of confidentiality and privacy for our applicants and residents. Management will not discuss or reveal any renter(s) application information, credit reports, financial statements, criminal history, etc. We also do not reveal credit report information with the applicant or other applicants. If you would like to discuss or dispute any information contained in your credit report, you will need to contact the consumer-reporting agency. (See management for details)

Credit History

Applicant(s) must have a valid U.S. Social Security Number for credit verification purposes or such similar credit verification information. Applicants must have a favorable credit history, using our consumer-reporting agency.

Criminal History

All applicants over eighteen (18) years will be checked for criminal history. The history must reflect no felony convictions, deferred adjudication for a felony or a misdemeanor for a crime against a person or property.

Income to Debt

A consistent monthly gross income must justify monthly rent. Income must be verified through employer, paycheck stubs, bank statements, etc. Self-employed applicants will be required to provide the previous year's Tax returns or 4 of the most recent bank statements.

Resident History

Applicant(s) should have a current resident reference (apartment community or mortgage company) reflecting a prompt payment record and an acceptable rental history for the past (2) years. Any record of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, living or housekeeping habits at a prior residence which may adversely affect the health or welfare of other residents, illegal occupants, unauthorized pets, or owing a past due balance to a previous landlord may result in the denial of the application.

False Information

Any false or omitted information, given in the application process, will automatically disqualify the applicant. Management does not need to discuss the reason for the rejection of any applicant(s).
